

Why You Should Eat School Meals:

Supports the School Nutrition Program

Eating school meals helps build capacity to feed others who may be in need! The more students that participate, the more the program is able to grow.

